

Your Fall Recruiting Checklist

Follow these steps to ensure you find the best athletic, academic, social and financial college fit.

Start of Senior Year – August/September

Check in with your high school guidance counselor.

Confirm your NCAA eligibility—once you start your senior year (seventh semester of high school), ten of your core courses are “locked in”—you can’t retake or replace any of these courses to improve your GPA.

If necessary, retake the ACT or SAT.

Whether you’re trying to maximize your scholarship opportunities, improve your admissions chances at highly selective schools or ensure you’re NCAA eligible, consider retaking the test in the fall.

Make sure your NCSA profile is up-to-date.

As you reach the home stretch of your recruiting, your profile should be 100% complete—make sure you uploaded your most recent transcript and update your highlight footage and verified measurables/stats from summer recruiting events, camps or combines.

September

Keep Track of Important Dates

1. Stay up to date with the DI and DII Recruiting Calendars.
2. Learn more about how the new NCAA Recruiting Rules affect seniors.
3. Write down college application/scholarship deadlines, and when you’re going on unofficial/official visits.

Go on unofficial or official visits.

They provide a great opportunity to get some one-on-one time with a college coach, meet your potential team and tour the campus/athletic facilities. For many student-athletes, this is the moment everything “clicks”, and they know where they want to go to school.

October 1

Complete your FAFSA starting October 1.

The FAFSA determines your eligibility for federal grants, loans and work-study funds administered by the U.S. Department of Education. Try to complete it ASAP—aid is awarded on a first-come, first-serve basis.

October

Refine and finalize your target schools.

Be realistic with your safety, target and dream schools—if you haven’t received an offer or much attention from college coaches, expand your search to include schools at all division levels.

Insider Tip:

Don’t stress! You can still find competitive programs outside of the DI level. Maximize your options by considering DII, DIII and NAIA schools—some of these coaches recruit well into senior year.

Start applying to schools.

Keeping up with admissions standards and deadlines can be tough—make sure you know which schools have set applications deadlines, offer rolling admissions and whether they have their own application process or use the Common App.

Keep track of college application costs.

While some colleges allow students to apply for free, the average college application fee was $42 in 2016. If you’re applying to multiple schools, these costs can add up. The College Board allows you to search for college application fee waivers—whether you’re an in-state resident, first-year student or meet certain income criteria.

November 13

Initial Signing Date

For most sports—excluding football and basketball—this is the first (not the only!) day you can officially sign with DI and DII schools.
